

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Non-profit JSC “Almaty University of Power Engineering and Telecommunications” named after Gumarbek Daukeyev

Non-profit JSC “Almaty University of Power Engineering and Telecommunications named after Gumarbek Daukeyev” is a leading university in the Republic of Kazakhstan on educating highly qualified specialists in the field of engineering, telecommunication and energy.

Fully aware of the importance and necessity of eliminating or reducing the various types of the negative impact of human activities (industrial production and transport) on the environment, the non-profit JSC “AUPET named after Gumarbek Daukeyev” sets the following goals:

- identify priority areas of action in the field of environmental protection to prevent or reduce the negative impact of human activities on the environment and for their continuous improvement;
- improving the education of environmental and sustainability issues of bachelors, master and doctoral students to be guided by the principles of management of natural resources and energy conservation;
- training of highly qualified specialists to protect the atmosphere and water resources, reducing the negative impact of waste on the environment, protecting the land from the negative impact of industry, and supporting their aspirations to choose the most efficient environmental management tools.

To achieve the policy goals, the employees of the non-profit JSC “AUPET named after Gumarbek Daukeyev” will be guided by the provisions of the ISO 14001 standard and the following principles:

- 1) compliance with the rules of legislative, regulatory and technical acts of the Republic of Kazakhstan that apply to the organization and related to its environmental aspects;
- 2) observation of systematic monitoring of the pollution sources, with the aim of timely development and implementation of the necessary corrective and preventive actions;
- 3) monitoring and analysis of the environmental management system, making timely management decisions in order to identify opportunities for its continuous improvement;
- 4) coordination of educational programs with representatives of companies to identify real requirements for graduates;
- 5) maintaining contacts with society and organizations on environmental policy problems pursued, to bring environmentally protection requirements to suppliers and contractors;
- 6) providing financial and logistical support for the planned environmental protection measures.

The leadership of the non-profit JSC “AUPET named after Gumarbek Daukeyev” takes responsibility for the implementation of the environmental policy, the allocation of resources sufficient for the functioning and continuous improvement of the environmental management system.

Rector of the Non-profit JSC
“AUPET named after Gumarbek Daukeyev”

S.Sagintayeva